DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

As per claim 2, line 10, "format" has been changed to - -structure- -.

In the abstract page, "means for" has been changed to - -the processor enabling- -.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Ernest Beffel on March 3, 2006.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art taken alone or in combination failed to teach or suggest creating a first derived data set and a second derived data set for synchronizing information between the first and second data sets as recited in independent claim 2.

The prior art taken alone or in combination failed to teach or suggest synchronizing information between the first and second data sets using the at least one intermediate data set as recited in independent claim 3.

The prior art taken alone or in combination failed to teach or suggest synchronizing information between the first and second data sets using the at least one intermediate data set as recited in independent claim 4.

The prior art taken alone or in combination failed to teach or suggest means for synchronizing individual entries from the first and second sets of information using the at least one synchronization data structure as recited in independent claim 13.

The prior art taken alone or in combination failed to teach or suggest means for synchronizing individual entries from the first and second sets of information using the at least one synchronization data structure as recited in independent claim 18.

The prior art taken alone or in combination failed to teach or suggest selectively inserting information entries from the second information sets into the third information set, the third information set now containing information entries that are compatible for reconciling the first and second information sets and updating the first information set with information from the third information set as recited in independent claim 23.

The prior art taken alone or in combination failed to teach or suggest automatically performing reconciliation by selectively inserting information entries from the second information set into the third set as recited in independent claim 26.

The prior art taken alone or in combination failed to teach or suggest selectively inserting information entries from the second information set into the third information set for reconciling the first and second information sets and updating the first information set with information from the third information set as recited in independent claim 34.

The prior art taken alone or in combination failed to teach or suggest reconciling information between the first and second data sets using the at least one intermediate data set as recited in independent claim 38.

The prior art taken alone or in combination failed to teach or suggest reconciling information between the first and second data sets using the at least one intermediate data set as recited in independent claim 39.

Cree et al disclose a method for automatically reconciling entries on copies of electronic calendars in a data processing system.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
